THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT Editor.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1906.

Better than public works. We saw two young colored men the other day working earnestly and cheerfully on a farm for $12 a month and rations. These men could get a dollar a day at sawmill or on railroad, ration themselves and suffer loss of day's work now and then. In our opinion the farm work is not only the most pleasant and healthful, but will in the end prove to be most profitable. The men on the farm live on much better food, have uninterrupted nights for sleeping and do no Sunday work. A little thought and our farms would be crowded while there would be scarcity of labor in public places.

We rejoice with the world that King Alfonso and his bride escaped the wrath of the bomb-thrower. Many of the innocent attendants, however, suffered instant death and many others were frigh fully maimed. It was known in advance that the fiendish attack would be made, and yet the vigilance of an army of expert guardsmen were not equal to the task of preventing it. What are crowns, and jewels, and purple and fine linen, and trains attendant when the whole gorgeous scene may be, without a moment's warning be smeared with blood? How true it remains that "uneasy rests the head that wears a crown."

In all of our religious gatherings there is sore lamenting the fact that the number of young men entering the ministry is sadly on the decline. Even from a worldly point of view this is to be wondered at, for in our opinion there is no profession quite so attractive as that of preaching. Nowhere is talent more promptly recognized, and no work can be more pleasant than that of the preparation and delivery of sermons. As to the "call" to the holy calling we have nothing to do, as that must be between the man and his God.

Arthur Pue Gorman is dead. He led a "strenuous" life in his struggle from page of the Senate to the position of one of its most conspicuous members. He was accused of many well-nigh criminal acts, but was never accused of not being a Democrat. His most inveterate enemies were those of his own political household. He was no orator, but the prince of organizers.

Richmond's hotel additions will not be ready for the State Fair, but we country folks won't demand a suite with bath attachment. We are accustomed to washing, not bathing, in the "tin" on the back porch and know how to double up. We serve notice, however, that we must have a "square meal" and for the time being be exempt from the too rigid enforcement of the Mann law.

Don't it make you shudder when you think of what you have been eating when you have been feasting (?) on canned goods? And yet we are told that the Government should not resort to "drastic" measures to protect the people against deadly poisons. The old-time "shot gun" policy of a Virginia paper wouldn't be too drastic.

Messrs. Jones and Maynard have won out easily Saunders will succeed Swanson and Slemp can be beat. It will take ALL the Democrats in the Ninth district to do it, however. There ought not to be a Republican in Congress from Virginia. The patronage he controls belongs necessarily to the State and the Democrats could control it as well as he does.

Mr. Roosevelt has provided a delightful summer outing for ex-Gov. Montague, and in the meantime he will be called upon to do important work as member of the Pan-American Alliance, which meets in Rio Janeiro. The work will be both pleasant and profitable. We extend our sincere congratulations.

Of course the counties of Virginia should be properly represented at the Jamestown Exposition, but will they be? Not unless proper effort is made to secure such results. If the Exposition authorities are not able to have this State properly canvassed then, so far as Virginia is concerned, the show will be a failure. The canvass ought not to be necessary, but it is.

The farmer who works now-a-days from 4 a. m. to 8 p. m. has perfect contempt for the 8-hour system. In our opinion, however, the 10-hour rule would be best for the average farmer.

"Bry n coming to lead Democrats" That appeared in big type and as head lines in many of our daily papers. The distinguish d Democrat expects to arrive in New York about the 1st of August and immediately open the ball. He is to wage war on the radical tendencies of would-be-leader Hearst. This should insure united Democracy.

If the directors of our financial institutions would only DIRECT there would never be another defalcation in the tide of time. Seven or more men will not agree to loot a bank or deceive a confiding public. It would, no doubt, be better to pay directors good calaries to insure good work.

Strawberries have been as red and as luscious as ever, and yet some people have complained of being made sick by them. Ours sat so lightly as did the "possum and taters" upon the old negro's stomach, who only had a greasy mouth and nothing more.

Cuba is four years old as a republic, and much cleaner and healthier than ever before in its history. But that doesn't mean that Uncle Sam should enter upon the international scavenger business. Let's mend our own ways before we undertake another outside job.

They tell us that Maine will go Democratic next time, and really the news has no interest to us. What we are concerned about is to know that the Democrats of the country will "get together" and stay together. If this is done they can whip the world, the flesh and the G. O. P.

It seems to be high time that some of the State buildings were going up on the Jamestown Exposition grounds. There are not very many working days between now and the time for opening the gates. Let us not suffer the stigma of being in a state of unreadiness.

And yet we submit. American manufacturers sell their wares in foreign markets cheaper than at home and the beef men keep for the home market cattle that will not pass inspection for the foreign markets. Forbearance has long since ceased to be a virtue in this regard.

Smoot must go. The United States Senate is no place for the man who lives in open and obstinate violation of the most sacred laws of the land. Religious freedom and boasted immorality will not be confounded.

We are accustomed to talk "tainted money," but the Bible puts it in this wise: "Go to, now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted." Nothing to please the ear in that.

Now for the "scursion" season, to be attended with the usual concomitants and weariness, t.irst and general disgust and dissatisfaction. And yet the crowds will rush that way and anticipate each time "a good time."

Now for the rush to mountain top and seaboard. This means the locking up of homes and the locking in of home influences for a season. Too much hurry and too much hotel life for the good of the people.

The Richmond Evening Journal is an infant in years but a giant in strength. Its one year of life has been a marvel of splendid results. Nothing like it in the history of the State. "May it live long and prosper."

The speech of Mr. Roosevelt, which he delivered at Portsmouth on Decoration Day, was a splendid tribute to American soldiers and seamen, those who wore the "Gray" as well as those who wore the "Blue."

We don't believe that any well-born and well-reared Southern girl or boy ever spoke of his "nigger mammy." "Black mammy," but never nigger in that connection.

Mr. Astor's New York rents amount to more than $27,000 a day, and yet America isn't just decent as a home for a gentleman (?).

The "sweet girl graduate" will soon be the serious school marm or "somebody's darling."

Let our farmers remember that we are to have a State Fair. Push the pig and pumpkin to largest limit.

Richmond doctors differ, but it is harmless so long as the public is patient.

"Duty done is the soul's fireside," and in the summer it is refreshing shade.

Scholarships of Sweet Briar.

The educational public of Virginia will be interested to learn of the following offers of scholarship and remission of tuition made by the Board of Directors of Sweet Briar Institute, at Sweet Briar, Amherst county:

On scholarship, affording free tuition, shall be established for each Congressional district in the State of Virginia. Students may be recognized as candidates only when actual residents of the district from which they desire to be appointed during at least one year next preceding their admission to the Institute. These scholarships shall be bestowed by competitive examination, under the rules and regulations laid down by the president of the Institute, and shall be open during 1906 07 to those who can enter the Freshman or Sub-Freshman class, without condition, and who are applicants for a degree; after the year 1906 07 this applies only to applicants for a degree who are able to enter the Freshman class without conditions.

Free tuition is offered to the daughters of citizens of Amherst county, Virginia, wherein the Institute is located, and to the daughters of all Virginia clergymen. This applies for the year 1906-07 to those who are able to enter the Freshman class without condition.

As the work at Sweet Briar is carried on in accordance with the standard held to by the best women's colleges of the country, an opportunity is given to the girls of Virginia to get an advanced course of work at comparatively little cost. Those scholarships should stimulate interest in advanced work for women throughout the State and encourage the preparatory schools to prepare their pupils for the college c urse.

Requirements for admission and a full explanation of the regulations for examinations for the competitive scholarships and remission of tuition will be sent upon application. Students intending to enter Sweet Briar should send for registration blanks at once and register as soon as possible, as rooms will be offered in order of application. Address communications to the president, Dr. Mary K. Benedict, Sweet Briar, Va.

Editors Will Find Lost Child.

If the editor of every paper in the Union will publish these lines there is no question but that Dr. S. L. Byers of Seeleyville, Ind., will recover his little son who was stolen from his home one year ago last May. Dr. Byers has spent his entire resources in search for his child, and unless the big-hearted members of the press come to his assistance his son will grow up an outlaw and an outcast among the low-at people of the earth.

Rayfond Byers, if alive, was six years old last June, is of light complexion, left-eye noticeably crossed, has a small V shaped nick in the edge of his left ear, has a sharp chin and has a narrow projecting forehead. He is rather small for his age and is unusually bright and intelligent, taking after the manner of a boy much older.

Dr. Byers has searched among the roving bands that frequent the United States, and believes that his son can be found among traveling junk dealers, so-called horse traders or movers. He does not think the boy was stolen by genuine gypsies. He thinks that he was taken by a wandering band that used him for begging in the towns along the route. This child may now be in the family of some farmer, who would be glad to give him up to his parents if their identity were known. For after a child reaches the age of seven the gypsies abandon them or give them away.

Court of Brights Disease.

George A. Sherman, Lisbon Red Mills, Lawrence Co', N. Y., writes: "I had kidney disease for many years and had been treated by physicians for twelve years; had taken a well known kidney medicine and other remedies that were recommended, but got no relief until I began using Foley's Kidney Cure. The first half bottle relieved me and four bottles have cured me of this terrible disease. Before I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure I had to make water about every fifteen minutes, day and night, and passed a brick-dust substance, and sometimes a slimy substance. I believe I would have died if I had not taken Foley's Kidney Cure."

L. E. Smith, Appomattox; W. R. Woodson, Concord; W. C. Nowlin, Spout Springs.

That railroad employe who saved $60,000 in six years on a salary of $30 a week, ought to be a shining example to the government clerk in Washington, who has a hard time keeping out of the hands of the loan shark.

Concord.

The ingress and egress of the town's visitors in the past week were somewhat more numerous as well as other noticeable events.

Last Sunday was children's day at Bethlehem, where a most enjoyable time was spent by all who witnessed the programme. About 40 children were properly trained by the careful and undivided attention of Mrs. S. B. Carson and M s. W. L. Ould. A "quarternian drill" was rendered by Misses Lillie Thomas, Gracie Cross, Nellie Abbott and Zelma Carson which merits our special mention. The young ladies marched to the front, where they magnificently displayed their oratorio talent and handsomely conducted their movements, each holding a large and beautiful bouquet in response to their training which was of supreme select.

The church's decorations of palms and ferns, white and pale blue ribbons were of the most superb taste, remiading one of an askancing view of fairyland.

A pretty but quiet marriage was witnessed at the home of Rev. M. S. Elliott last Thursday night, where Mr. George Wilson and Miss Eric Little entered the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev. Elliott performed the ceremony. The bride and groom quietly settled at the home of the groom's father, Mr. B. B. Wilson, of the village, where they will reside at present.

Misses Bessie Staples and Maggie Wilson were visitors from Lynchburg last week in attendance to Mr. Wilson's marriage.

Miss Jessie Martin was in Lynchburg last week shopping. She returned Saturday.

Mr. W. E. Price, with his friend Miss Irene Whitten, were visiting his father's Sunday, They returned Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Herbert Thomas, of Rock Fish, Va., is visiting his sister, Miss Lillie Thomas, this week. He expects to return Tuesday.

Mr. J. H. Steele, with his force, is working on the erection of a new section house at Appomattox this week.

Mr. Elmer Akers, of Roanoke, came on a short visit to his people Sunday.

Mr. Mout Carson, who has been incapacitated by sickness for the last two weeks, resumes his duties as operator this week.

Mesars. Herbert and Clarence Cardwell spent the day with their father Sunday, returning to Lynchburg Sunday afternoon.

Two Reasons Why We Grow
Progress is noted in two ways, viz:
1st—The incentive to make provisions for future demands.
2d—The care to make the best possible results of the present.
And so it is today, by such methods,
LYNCHBURG'S GREATER STORE
Stands out as substantial evidence of these two potent factors in commercial upbuilding.
We are never satisfied, no matter how good the service, no matter how splendid the results of our efforts, no matter how superb are the assortments of merchandise offered in our various departments.
We are planning for better conditions, striving to make this store the foremost in the State, and it shall be done only by fair dealing, courteous treatment and prevailing low prices. Thus the tide will swell and the store of yesterday is the better store of today, and on and on till greater things be accomplished, our facilities to serve you the best possible.
